DẠNG BÀI ĐỌC HIỂU

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 19 to 28.

The idea of family roles is changing in today's world. The traditional model—where one person works and the other takes care of the home—is being replaced. In modern families, sharing household chores is essential. Everyone contributes to create a happier, more balanced home life.

This change makes sense. Since many couples now both work and earn similar incomes, it's no longer fair for one person to do all the housework. When chores are shared, it reduces stress, prevents burnout, and helps avoid arguments. Most importantly, it gives everyone more time to relax, enjoy family moments, and grow together.

To share chores successfully, families need open communication and flexibility. Start by listing all the tasks—big or small—like cleaning, cooking, laundry, or budgeting. Then divide them based on each person's strengths, schedules, and preferences. Regular discussions and clear planning help prevent misunderstandings and make cooperation easier.

Involving children in housework from a young age also brings many benefits. With age-appropriate tasks, kids learn responsibility, problem-solving, and independence. Helping at home not only reduces pressure on parents, but also teaches children important life skills and strengthens family bonds.

Question 19: Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a reason for sharing household chores?

A. It allows all family members to enjoy more time for relaxation and bonding.

Question 22: The word "them" in paragraph 3 refers to _____.

- A. families
- B. chores
- C. family members
- D. tasks

Question 23: Which of the following best paraphrases the sentence: "When chores are shared, it reduces stress, prevents burnout, and helps avoid arguments."?

- C. Assigning chores strictly can help ensure that no arguments ever occur in family relationships.
- D. Involving more people in housework brings relaxation and keeps people away from emotional connections.

Question 24: Which of the following statements is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. Distributing chores based on ability, time, and individual comfort leads to more effective cooperation.
- B. Chores should be assigned randomly to ensure fairness and avoid family stress.
- C. The traditional approach of role division remains the most stable and efficient.
- D. Communication should be avoided in order to maintain flexibility when sharing tasks.

Question 25: In which paragraph does the writer explain how fair distribution of chores contributes to minimizing tension and preventing household conflicts?

- A. Paragraph 4
- B. Paragraph 3

Question 26: In which paragraph does the writer emphasize the role of chores in helping children develop responsibility and life skills while supporting family unity?
