PART 5: ĐỌC HIỂU

Read the following passage about Lifelong Learning and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 23 to 30.

In 2021, Harvard Business Review revealed a study that only 14% of U.S. workers displayed a passion for lifelong learning in their fields. These employees demonstrated what was called “the passion of the explorer,” showing long-term commitment, excitement about challenges, and a desire to collaborate to solve problems.

In the digital age, the value of learning for its own sake has decreased. With the abundance of information available through devices like smartphones or AI tools like Chat GPT, it seems unnecessary to memorize or understand information that can be instantly accessed online. Unfortunately, constant engagement with technology negatively impacts cognitive abilities, affecting memory, decision-making, and critical thinking.

The rise of generative AI (Gen AI) has made this issue worse. While Gen AI tools provide quick, well-researched answers, they often lead to complacency, as users rely on them without questioning the information. These AI-generated answers, though seemingly comprehensive, are limited in accuracy and often oversimplified, offering a false sense of understanding and diminishing critical thinking.

To use AI responsibly, continuous learning must accompany it. Users need to understand how prompting works and learn about the security risks associated with AI. As technology evolves rapidly, ongoing learning is essential to avoid falling behind professionally. Companies that ignore this will find themselves at a competitive disadvantage. For individuals, continuous learning ensures skills remain relevant, preventing knowledge gaps and keeping them adaptable in an ever-changing job market.

Lifelong learning also benefits mental health. It boosts self-confidence, well-being, and life satisfaction, helping individuals cope with stress, anxiety, and burnout. In an era of constant technological change, investing in personal and professional growth is essential for both career success and overall happiness.

Question 23: Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a reason why continuous learning is important?

- A. It helps in coping with stress and burnout. B. It leads to a false sense of understanding.
C. It boosts self-confidence and understanding D. It keeps skills relevant in an evolving job market.

Question 24: The word engagement in paragraph 2 could best be replaced by _____.

- A. involvement B. disinterest C. connection D. withdrawal

Question 25: The word complacency in paragraph 3 is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

- A. concern B. arrogance C. indifference D. satisfaction

Question 26: The word “they” in paragraph 3 refers to _____.

- A. users B. answers C. Gen AI tools D. well-researched answers

Question 27: Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 4?

- A. Understanding AI risks is not necessary for users.
B. Users should use AI tools without worrying about security.
C. Users must ignore the security risks and focus on learning AI.
D. It's important to learn how AI works and its associated risks.

Question 28: Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. Lifelong learning has no significant influence on our mental health.
B. AI tools always provide more accurate and reliable information.
C. Continuous learning is essential for personal and professional success.
D. Complacency leads to the best decision-making skills among users.

Question 29: In which paragraph does the writer discuss the negative impact of constant engagement with technology?

- A. Paragraph 4 B. Paragraph 3 C. Paragraph 2 D. Paragraph 1

Question 30: In which paragraph does the writer emphasize the learning for both personal and professional growth?

- A. Paragraph 1 B. Paragraph 3 C. Paragraph 2 D. Paragraph 5

PART 6: ĐỌC HIỂU

Question 38: Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 5?

- A. The government should take urgent action to stop poaching and preserve biodiversity.
- B. The protection of biodiversity is vital for the well-being of both humans and wildlife.
- C. Preserving wildlife and their habitats does not fall on a single group or individual.
- D. Future generations should be the ones who are responsible for conserving wildlife.

Question 39: Which of the following can be inferred from the passage?

- A. Reforestation projects have not succeeded in restoring wildlife habitats and populations.
- B. Future generations will be affected by the loss of biodiversity and habitat destruction.
- C. Wildlife conservation efforts exclude natural habitat restoration and anti-poaching laws.
- D. Human activities predominantly affect animals living in residential and industrial areas.

Question 40: Which of the following best summarizes the passage?

- A. Habitat destruction and poaching pose severe threats to wildlife, but conservation efforts and technology offer hope for the future.
- B. Illegal wildlife trade is the primary factor affecting endangered species, and conservationists should prioritize efforts to eliminate it.
- C. Wildlife protection is primarily the responsibility of governments since individuals lack necessary resources to make a huge impact.
- D. Technological advancements have fully solved the issue of wildlife conservation, providing advanced tools for saving endangered species.
